UTRECHT TRAVEL INFORMATION

From Schiphol international airport to Utrecht Central Station

* Walk to the central hall in which you’ll find the train information (NS = Nederlandse Spoorwegen = Dutch Rail) Also see below pictures.

There is a direct train connection to “Utrecht Central Station”
- Daytime: every 15 minutes. The journey will take 30 minutes during night hours but can vary and be up to 60 minutes.

Price ticket single journey: € 8,30 second class, € 14,10 first class
Duration: 31 minutes
Taxi fares are approx. € 150,--

From Utrecht Central Station to hotels

At the station follow the signs “Jaarbeursplein”, after some 5 minutes walk you go down the stairs and when arriving outside turn to the right, NH hotel is right in front of you. Park Plaza is situated next to NH hotel

After NH hotel turn left “Graadt van Roggenweg”, “Weg van de Verenigde Naties”, right “Bizetlaan” where IBIS hotel is situated. This is a 25 minute walk so it is recommended to take a taxi, single fare varying from € 8,50 to € 12.50.
You can buy your train ticket at the yellow machines in the baggage hall or past the customs in Schiphol Plaza, although it is easier to turn to “Train tickets & Services” at Schiphol Plaza. See next picture.

You cannot buy a ticket on the train. A fine of 35 euro will be added to the fare if you’re travelling without a valid ticket.
The yellow boards in Schiphol Plaza and on the platforms show departure times and platform numbers. The route is shown at the top of each board.

The platforms are underneath Schiphol Plaza.